(1) The Preliminary Examination is meant as a screening test only; the candidate who obtains such minimum qualifying marks in the Preliminary Examination, as may be fixed by the Commission, shall be admitted to the Main Examination.

(2) The marks obtained in the Preliminary Examination by the candidates who are declared qualified for admission to the Main Examination shall not be counted for determining their final order of merit. The number of candidates to be allowed to appear for the Main Examination shall be about six times of the total approximate number of vacancies so advertised. Only those candidates who are declared by the Commission to have qualified in the Preliminary Examination shall be eligible for admission to the Main Examination:

Provided that candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, or Scheduled Tribes or Socially and Educationally Backward Classes (including Nomadic Tribes and Denotified Tribes)or Economically Weaker Sections may be called for Main Examination, by the commission, by applying relaxed standards in the Preliminary Examination, if the commission is of the opinion that sufficient number of candidates from these categories are not likely to be called for the Main Examination on the basis of the general standard in order to feel up the vacancies reserved for them.

13. Qualifying standard and marks.-

The marks obtained in the Main Examination by the candidates shall be counted for determining their final order of merit.

(1) After the Main Examination, the names of candidates shall be arranged by the Commission in the order of merit on the basis of the MainExamination marks finally awarded to each candidate. Thereafter, the Commission shall, for the purpose of recommending candidates against unreserved vacancies, fix a qualifying mark (hereinafter referred to as "the general qualifying standard") with reference to the number of unreserved vacancies to be filled up on the basis of the Main Examination. For the purpose of recommending reserved category candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Socially and Educationally Backward Classes (including Nomadic Tribes and Denotified Tribes) and Economically Weaker Sections against reserved vacancies, the Commission may relax the general qualifying standard with reference to number of reserved vacancies to be filled up in each of these categories on the basis of the Main Examination:

Provided that the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Socially and Educationally Backward Classes (including Nomadic Tribes and Denotified Tribes) and Economically Weaker Sections who have not availed themselves of any of the concessions or relaxations in the eligibility or the selection criteria, at the examination and who after taking into account the general qualifying standards are found fit for recommendation by the Commission, shall not be recommended against the vacancies reserved for Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and Socially and Educationally Backward Classes (including Nomadic Tribes and Denotified Tribes)and Economically Weaker Sections.

(2) The Commission may further lower the general qualifying standard to take care of any shortfall of candidates for appointment against unreserved vacancies and any surplus of candidates against reserved vacancies arising out of the provisions of this rule.

(3) There shall be waiting list of 20% of the total number of posts so advertised. The waiting list shall remain in force in accordance with the relevant rules issued by the Government.

14. Ineligible if fails to attend the Main Examination,-

The candidate, who is qualified for the Main Examination but fails to attend the Main Examination or fails to attend any of the Main Examination papers, shall not be eligible for selection.

15. Result of the Main Examination:

(1) (a) The result of the candidates whose names are to be recommended to the Government for the appointment to the post, shall be arranged according to the order of merit of candidates along with the seat number and the total marks obtained by each of the candidates.

(b) The Commission shall display the names, seat numbers, and total marks obtained by the candidates to be kept on the waiting list.

(c) The Commission shall also display the result of unsuccessful candidates containing the names, seat numbers and total marks obtained by each of the candidates.

(2) The Commission shall, submit a copy of the result to the Government and the Government shall publish the same in the Official Gazette.

16. Rechecking of marks of the Main Examination.-

(1) The candidate who desires to have his marks of the Main Examination rechecked, may apply to the Commission along with such fee as may be fixed by the Commission for each paper within a period of fifteen days from the date of declaration of the final result of the examination.

(2) The candidate who desires to have the mark-sheet of the Main examination shall apply to the Commission along with such fee as may be fixed by the Commission within a period of fifteen days from the date of declaration of the final result.

(3) In no circumstances, the marks of any part of the Main examination shall be disclosed before the official declaration of the final result.

17. Forwarding the list of candidates to the Government.-

The Commission, on declaration of the result, shall forward the list of candidates to the Government who are recommended for appointment along with necessary particulars such as whether the candidate belongs to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes, Socially and Educationally Backward Classes (including Nomadic Tribes and Denotified Tribes) and Economically Weaker Sections and his date of birth, qualifications, and such other particulars as the Government may direct.

18. No right to appointment.-

The mere success in the examination shall not confer any right to appointment and no candidate shall be appointed to the post unless the Government is satisfied after such inquiries as may be considered necessary that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the post.

19. Order of appointment.-

Appointment of the selected candidates shall be made strictly in order of their rank in the merit list based on the main examination prepared by the Commission.-

(1) The appointment of a candidate to the post shall be subject to the provisions of the recruitment rules in force to the post.

(2) Where the candidate fails to join the post offered to him within the stipulated time, his name shall be deleted from the list of candidates recommended by the Commission for appointment.

20. Medical Examination.-
